Board on the Bus: out in the community in June

at Brixton (Tate) Library 2 June 2025

Eugenie Dadie, Patient and Public Voice Board member

- Regular stop for the bus at Brixton (Tate) Library
- Mental Health Support Worker on board and health and wellbeing advice and signposting from Health Champions

Themes from 'what matters to you' postcards:

- 'Your mental health support worker is very affirming and really helped me. Having empathetic people to support mental health is really important'.
- Sport exercise nutrition and how to think positive all needed
- Exercise classes near home for families
- Love the library, a great community centre
- Good awareness on health and services in the community
