Simon Boote, Director of Children and Young People Alliance

Spoke with 12 residents:

Residents raised on 'what matters to you' postcards:

- Stress and worry around cost of living impacts mental health
- Need for more affordable leisure activity and time to be healthy
- Need for better access to GP appointments and more capacity
- Help to follow up referrals and better communication
- Concern around poor air quality
- Importance of connection, social spaces and in-person medical/health appointments
